

Judicial Board Hearing
Regarding Chris Williams '97
March 19, 1997

In the matter regarding Chris Williams '97 appeal (attached) the Judicial Board rules in favor of election commission. The removal of Chris Williams' signs was valid due to the fact that Williams' signs exceeded the height limit of four feet as stated in Article IV, Section V, part D.

In our evaluation of this matter, we have noted two methods by which Mr. Williams could bring his signs into compliance with the four foot height limit, the first suggestion being the trimming of the signs in order to bring them into compliance. The second suggestion would be to lean the signs at a sufficient angle to bring height or distance down to four feet.

Furthermore, we appreciate both parties prompt response to this issue.
